

Adaptive Personality Questionnaire (DAPTQ)

Preparation Guide

The Adaptive Personality Questionnaire (DAPTQ) is a personality inventory developed by examining the common personality traits found in successful business leaders and other highly successful individuals. Highly adaptive individuals will typically remain composed, be natural and charismatic leaders, easily be able to make difficult decisions, and can be considered ideal business leaders.

The DAPTQ focuses on a wide range of traits associated with numerous measures of extroversion, emotional control, rational thinking, stress and anxiety resilience, satisfaction with life, creativity, self-esteem, communication adaptability, and cognitive abilities.

Traits assessed by the DAPTQ

Leadership

Logical Thinking

Composure

Creativity

Fearlessness

Focus

Extroversion

Management

Completing the Questionnaire

While you are completing the DAPTQ, keep in mind that there are no correct or incorrect answers. Similarly, there are no "good" or "bad" traits; some traits are simply more associated with success for specific roles. Here are some tips to help you complete the DAPTQ more efficiently:

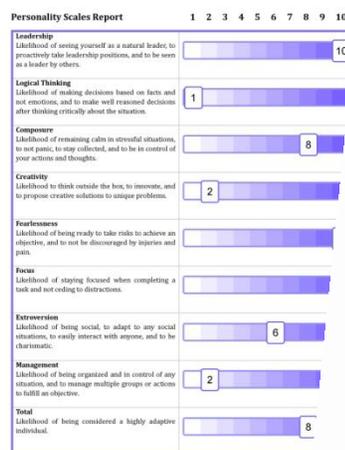

- 1) You will be asked to rate your answer on a 6-point scale ranging from "Strongly Disagree" to "Strongly Agree".
- 2) Complete the questionnaire when you feel alert, rested, and are free from potential interruptions.
- 3) Click on the appropriate case to select a response. You must respond to all statements to submit your questionnaire.
- 4) Carefully follow the instructions at the beginning of the questionnaire. Sometimes, you will be asked to think whether a particular statement applies to you in general. Other times, you will be asked to answer a statement from a school/work perspective.
- 5) Be careful with negatively worded statements. You will sometimes read very similar statements, but worded differently (e.g. "I am very fast" and "I am not very fast").
- 6) Try to discriminate as much as possible by using the full range of options on the 6-point scale to reflect, as closely as possible, your thoughts toward each statement.
- 7) Avoid trying to select responses that you think are the most desirable, or responses of how you would like to be in the future.

Consulting your Report

Each report provides powerful and detailed information in an easy-to-read format. You will find:

- General information about the test
- An overview of each personality trait
- A complete explanation of each trait score

Our results are instant, allowing you to review a candidate's score as soon as they have completed the assessment.
